Superheroes Are Everywhere

Synopsis

Having a big brother that always makes the right decisions is so powerful for any younger sibling to see. This book tells the tale of how being a positive role model can shape the lives of those around you. Everyone goes through difficult situations, it's how you handle them that make you who you are.

Customer Reviews

I teach kindergarten through third grade students, and I love this book. The author has given me a wonderful piece of children's literature to use with my students. This book can help kids see that there really are superheroes, and they are the people they know. Maybe we should all look around and thank the superheroes in our own lives. Thank you Mr. Vinyard. May God continue to bless you and your brother.
