The Knock Knock Personal Library Kit was a huge hit with our eight year old twin granddaughters, who immediately took care of as many books as they could! They loved the concept, and I love the fact that it's teaching them to share their books rather than fight over who has the rights to which book! One problem I noticed later: the extra library cards I had ordered are too big for the pockets, and require folding. So, unless you want to trim a bunch of cards, think twice before ordering the extras, which are not a match.

i bought my first 'personal library kit' many years ago, and am so pleased knock knock continues to produce this product!not only is this kit great for keeping track of books you loan out, but i also love to put one of the pockets and cards into books that i gift to people. i like to stamp the date i gave them the book as the first place on the card. i think it adds a wonderful touch to any book.the original sets came with a red stamp pad, which i preferred to the black, however both were/are decent and functional.the adhesive of the pockets is strong and i've not seen (nor heard of) one coming loose. i've never tried to remove one from a book, so i don't know how difficult that might be.for any fan of nostalgia, books, or a combination of the two, this quality set is highly recommended!

I LOVE the Knock Knock Personal Library Kit. I was so sad when my local library went digital, printing out receipts. It's not the same. But I saw this kit and I soared! I use my pockets in the front cover of each one of my books and I stamp the date I received the book. I love using them with my Penguin Classic Hardcover books. Those are beautiful and with these personal library cards, I am taken back to those sweet days when you would go to the library and find that perfect book to take home with you and the librarian would open the book and stamp that card and you would be forever engrained in the history of this book. Nostalgic, anyone?I have no complaints. I keep everything tucked neatly into the box it came in. There is a little plastic cover that slips in to cover and everything stays put pretty well. The nostalgic detail in the cards and the space to write "From the Library of" is a nice touch. The only thing I could think of is that maybe some variety in colors for the pockets would be nice. The orange/coral color against the creme is fine though.Conclusion: Well worth the buy. As the product feature states, "Channel your inner librarian". Once my stamp pad runs dry or the stamp runs past the date, I will definitely repurchase the kit. For anyone who loves librarians and books, they will definitely adore this product.

I purchased this as a gift for a friend who is a librarian. Nicely packaged for gift-giving. A cute/novel gift idea.

This is a great little set that is fun and has a purpose. If you have a library, there are probably more efficient ways to manage it, but this is quirky and fun. Good product and it shipped quickly.

My husband loves this. The only thing that bothered me was that the pencil eraser had come off while in the packaging. It's just a pencil, but still... Overall, great product.

I really love this! I wanted a way to make our sharable library more like a library. We have a lot of books that we give out that we do want to see back. Our small group gets bigger every day and sometimes it is hard to keep up with all of the books we lend out. When I was looking up ways to keep track of books I did some research online and some folks suggested library cards. That led me to this. This is not only super easy to get you started it is reminiscent of the days when I went to the library as a kid. The cards and card holders and even the stamp make it fun. It is also great when everyone is checking out, they are smiling because they are thinking the same thing. It is just great. I was not sure about using the sticky part because I was worried about damaging the books but it occurred to me that the books were going to people all the time and they were eventually going to show the wear and tear so it was okay. I look forward to getting more.

These are exactly how they look in the picture. The packaging is adorable and durable enough to store the product in. I am using these for our book themed wedding. They will have the ceremony program typed on them and handed out in the book envelope included with a book mark. It all fits so neat and tidy in the provided card holder envelope.
